Wedderburn®
Do More.

Weighing Data Communication Software

Model : WSDICONNECT

DI-CONNECT is a multi-purpose communications package designed for use with compatible Wedderburn Digital Indicators and Scales, making the capture of weighing data simple and affordable. Leverage Microsoft Excel functionality, DI-CONNECT can provide “real-time” update of selected fields within a Microsoft Excel spreadsheet. DI-CONNECT may be used in a variety of ways, as a communications testing tool, as a data logging device, as a semi-automatic data entry system, and an automatic entry to a Microsoft Excel file.

FEATURES — WSDICONNECT

- suitable for use with Windows Operating Systems
- compatible with a range of Wedderburn indicators, scales and balances
- record weight data directly into Microsoft Excel
- link mode for weight entry in any Windows application or program that allows data entry or editing
- hot key function allowing user to request weight data from PC
- automatic periodic data logging feature for monitoring changes in weight over time

SUPPORTED MODELS

- DIGI: DI-10, DI-28, DI-80, DI-160, DI162, DI166, DI-170, DI-600, DC-190, DS-470, DS-770 and DS788
- Vibra: AB Series, AJ Series, HG Series, HJ Series, HJK Series, HTR Series, LN Series, and SJ Series
- Precisa: XT Series abd XB Series
- Wedderburn: WSI20

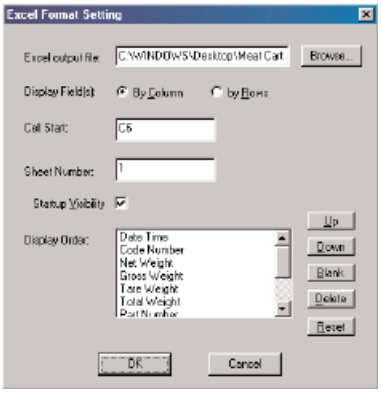
Weighing Data Communication Software

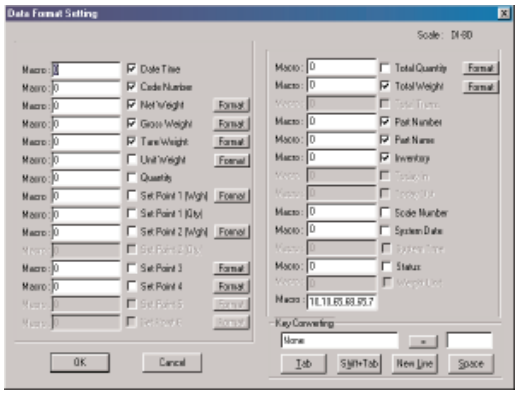
Model : WSDICONNECT

DI-Connect

Digital Indicator Communication Utility

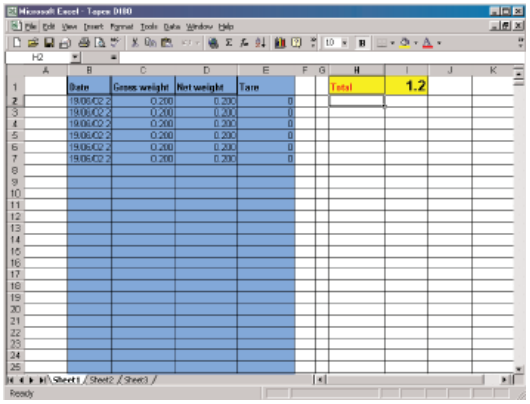
DI-Connect is Wedderburn's new full-featured communications package that make the retrieval of your weighing data simple. It not only supports a wide variety of Wedderburn models, including three selectable output modes but can also provide data acquisition functionality that is suitable for a broad array of installations. It can also integrate to MS Excel. By using OLE automation, DI-Connect can open Microsoft Excel file and insert selected scale data directly into Excel spreadsheet.



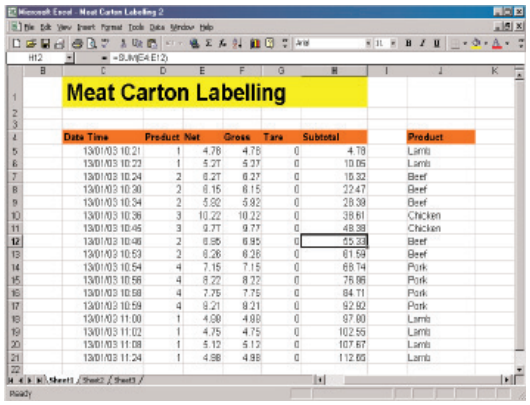


Real Time Totals

Measure incoming and outgoing goods for all types of industries, eg yield end of day report.



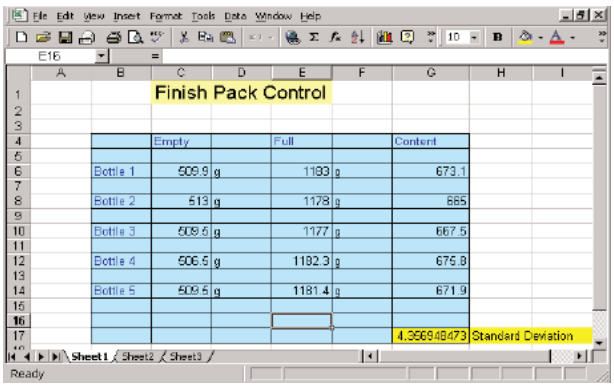
Weight Total



Weight & Product Total

Finish Pack Control

This offers a simple, affordable and effective way to trace and track your finished goods.



Specifications may change without notice.